TODAY'S WEDDINGS.

ONE IN THE CITY AND ONE IN ARCADIA THIS MORNING.

Mr. Malcolm H. Mason, a conductor on the I. C., of Duquoin, Ill., and Miss Belle K. Green were married at the residence of the bride, in Arcadia, this morning. Mr. Mason is a highly respected young man and stands high in his business. Miss Green is well known here and is a very popular young lady. They will reside in Carbondale where Mr. Mason is stationed.

Mr. William Reymann, of Lexington, Ky., and Miss Katherine B. Davis, of this city, were married at the First Presbyterian church this morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. George W. Briggs officiating. The marriage was a quiet affair only a few of the couple's most intimate friends being present. Mr. Reymann is a mechanic and a prominent young man in his home. Miss Davis is a sister of Mr. Chas. Davis, the organist, and of Mr. B. B. Davis, the architect. She is a young lady of many attractions and is a favorite with her acquaintances. The couple will go to Lexington to reside.

ANOTHER CONFERENCE.

COMMITTEE TO MEET WITH THE STREET CAR PEOPLE THIS EVENING.

It is understood that there is to be another conference this evening between the arbitration committee appointed by the Central Labor union and the street car officials. It seems the motormen are not satisfied with the agreement made last week.

A CORRECTION.

The Paducah Sun of yesterday makes the following statements:

"The white and colored ministers of Paducah met yesterday afternoon and compared notes on the work in their churches. The colored ministers also held a weekly meeting and discuss their work, and by arrangement the white and colored ministers will meet about once every month and compare progress."

The definite article "the" includes all ministers of Paducah. The statements in the Paducah Sun are incorrect. As far as I am concerned, would have it understood that I did not meet with the "white and colored ministers" in the past, and shall not meet with them in their meetings in the future. I also state that I am not a member of the "Ministers' Association," so-called. Very Respectfully, J. H. HARTENBERGER, Pastor of the E. Lutheran church.

RAILROAD NOTES.

BIG RECEIPTS IN THE LOCAL I. C. OFFICE LAST MONTH.

Mr. R. B. McCann, the well known I. C. engine foreman, went to Dawson this morning on a short visit.

Mr. W. D. Tudor, the N. C. & St. L. railroad conductor, went to Greenville, Ky., this morning. His wife who has been visiting in that place for the past several weeks will accompany him home.

Mr. Jim Matthews, son of H. O. Matthews, the traveling engineer of the I. C. arrived in the city this morning and will probably take a run out of this city. He was formerly an engineer on the I. C. here, but for the past three years has been running in California on the Southern Pacific road. His many friends will be glad to see him back.

Mr. John Connell, the stenographer in the train master's office has returned from Louisville where he visited his parents.

The receipts at the local Illinois Central ticket office for the month of May were something near $10,000. This is a fair example of the passenger business done by the I. C. out of Paducah.

The carnival did not help the local office out, as might have been supposed, as all the visitors during that week had return tickets and the local office was not effected. The Memphis reunion, however, added a little more business, but the visitors from this city were not so numerous as might have been believed.

Mr. H. C. Wallace, of Greenville, Ky., took charge of the local I. C. ticket office last night. He has been in the city for several days but had not become sufficiently acquainted with the business until last night.

POLICE COURT.

AN INHUMAN HUSBAND IS FINED FIFTY DOLLARS TODAY.

Alex Smith, colored, was presented in the police court this morning on a charge of whipping his wife. The evidence was clear and he was fined $50 and costs and recognized in the sum of $500 to keep the peace.

The malicious cutting case against Mamie Jenkins and Becky Price was continued until Friday.

George Shemwell was fined $1 and costs for a breach of the peace.

COUNTY COURT.

Mattie McCane was appointed and qualified as the guardian of Hugh J. McCane this morning in the county court clerk's office.

In the case of Georgia A. Ragsdale and others against the Paducah Banking Co. a judgment of $514 was filed in favor of the plaintiff. Defendant then prayed an appeal to the court of appeals and the prayer was granted.

In the case of the Mechanics' Building and Loan Association against W. S. Bishop a judgment was filed in favor of the plaintiff.

LIVELY LAWSUIT

Dr. L. B. Cosby Renounces His Late Wife's Will.

HE WILL GO TO THE LAW

He Claims He Is Entitled to Half the Personal Property and One-Third the Real Estate.

ESTATE APPRAISED AT ABOUT $35,000.

A big lawsuit is promised over the estate of the late Mrs. Jane Cosby, who died recently in Elizabethtown, Ill., and was buried in Oak Grove here. Mrs. Crosby formerly lived here, and left an estate appraised at about $35,000 of which $21,000 is stock in the City National bank here with a fine brick residence on North Fifth near Madison.

While in the city some time before her death she made her will, in which she cut off her husband, Dr. L. B. Cosby, with $5. She had been separated from him for about two years and he now resides in Cynthiana, Ind. He has been here and employed as an attorney, Hon. R. T. Lightfoot, and is determined to resist the provisions of the will.

In the county court he has already renounced the will, which means that he declines the $5 left him, and will contest the will in the courts.

Attorney W. D. Greer is executor of the will without bond. Monday in the county court a motion will be made by Dr. Cosby's attorneys to require the executor to give bond, and an order asked restraining him from touching the personal property or selling the real estate, until the courts settle the question of law involved. If this motion is sustained the court will be asked to require the executor to turn over to Dr. Cosby his legal share. If the decision is against him the case will be appealed and suit brought.

Under the laws of Kentucky a husband is entitled to half the personal property and one-third of the real estate left by his wife and vice versa, and it is claimed that there is no way to deprive Dr. Cosby of his share, which will amount all told to about $30,000, and which will necessarily upset the other provisions of the will. Some of the beneficiaries reside in California and others in Illinois.

About $7,000 worth of real estate in Paducah is a part of the estate. Appraised with Attorney Lightfoot in the case will be Attorney R. H. Fowler, of Elizabethtown, Ill.

Owing to the amount of money involved, it is almost certain that there will be lively litigation over the estate.

Attorneys Greer & Reed will represent the other beneficiaries.

Ira D. Reckard, Duncombe, Ia., writes: "My little boy scalded his leg from the knee to the ankle. I used BANNER SALVE immediately and in three weeks' time it was almost entirely healed. I want to recommend it to every family and advise them to keep Banner Salve on hand, as it is a sure remedy for scalds or any sores."

A DAILY THOUGHT.

The man or the woman who believes well is apt to work well.—L. Marvel.

The brick street is sinking. May be we will get rid of it after all.

Alas, poor York! Are we to ever furnish our twin contemporaries with food for editorial digestion?

Shoot the man who attempts to interfere with Providence in riding Paducah of its Broadway monstrosity.

One of the greatest calamities that could befall us is for some conscienceless wretch to knock the scab off a sore head.

It is up to the Democrat to give The Sun about a page of free advertising. In Kentucky straight goods are always preferable.

Should the L. and N. decide to re-enter politics with its barrel, how would our Third street neighbor explain its present position?

If constituting ninety-nine per cent of the Republican party in McCracken county means belonging to "the gang," and getting everything we go after, spells "loss," then it is supposed we will have to confess to being "it."

The organ of the "better element" and its afternoon edition have in turn annihilated The Sun and its "sensitive editor." If our Fourth street contemporary will now kindly devote a column or two to us, the job will doubtless be completed to the satisfaction of everybody. There's nothing like team work.

If after all this trouble over the milk and meat inspector the ordinance should prove to be unconstitutional it will be a hard knock for the board of health, and the members will be justified in resigning in a body. A question that is being asked is, did the council fix up the ordinance that way on purpose?

The council has taken steps to have the Broadway brick blinder fixed up, and authorized the mayor to take a sharp stick to the railroad company and have the streets on which its tracks run repaired, but nothing was said of the many holes in other localities. They need as much attention as other bad places.

Judge Evans, at Owensboro, has granted a perpetual injunction in the case of the Owensboro Water company against the city of Owensboro. Over a year ago the council of Owensboro undertook to fix the water rate to be paid, and the company filed an injunction enjoining the city from enforcing the rate, alleging that they were inadequate. Judge Evans granted a temporary injunction in the initial trial and now makes it perpetual, thus deciding that the water company has a right to its own rates if they are not unreasonable.

Trustee Weille has taken preliminary steps towards disposing of the school building at Fifth and Court streets. He suggests that it would be a good site for the proposed Elk home, or for a public library, the latter suggestion having been made in The Sun several days ago. The new school building on West Broadway is large enough for all the pupils that now attend both schools and in the opinion of many is a better location. The school at Fifth and Court is in a very inconvenient location, and will have to be abandoned sooner or later, and might as well be now when there is a chance to dispose of it.

If the Sun's memory is good, there was once upon a time a Wat Hardin delegation sent from this county to a certain music hall convention and the aforesaid delegation not only failed to get half a loaf, but if it saw the inside of the convention hall it was only long enough to be introduced to the business end of a boot that was wielded with sufficient energy to keep some of the ousted sows for many months. If the members of that memorable delegation succeed in crawling back, it will only be to a back seat in the band wagon. The probability is, however, that they will not even be allowed to ride. They may be permitted to go along behind, however, and push.

Although the brick streets and sidewalks have been down for some time, both are beginning to show unmistakable signs of gross inferiority. The council had to take formal action on the condition of the streets Monday night, and the pavements are beginning to crack and sink in many places. Some of them will have to be replaced in less than another year. There is general complaint about them, but if anything can be done except simply to complain it has not yet been suggested. It is probable that the contractors will do nothing, and is said that their bond is worthless. If the bond is not good the bondsmen cannot be made to do anything tending to improve the condition of the street and pavements, and the city will have the bag to hold.

The press is tipping off some red hot roasts for Rev. Charles Sheldon, of Kansas, who advocated the plan of keeping your servants on an equality with your family. The principle suggested by the Rev. Charles seems to be intended for everybody's family except his own. A servant employed at his home undertook to practice what her employer had preached, but it wouldn't work by a jugful. Now she's looking for another job, and people who have been following in the footsteps of Rev. Charles are looking for another leader. The question that is being asked is why Rev. Charles doesn't enforce at home what he puts in his books. It is probably forgotten that there is a Mrs. Charles to be reckoned with.

Shortly before the French and British soldiers were having their little war at Tien Tsin a day or two ago The Figaro, of Paris, got in a hurry in its enthusiasm and published the following, which proved an amusing and ill-timed felicitation: "The long Chinese nightmare at last seems to be coming to an end. The marvelous concert of powers was maintained to the last. It is a miracle. For a year French, British, German, Russian and American troops have been able to continue a campaign without turning their arms against each other. It is a fine triumph for civilization; but it is mainly due to the intimacy of France and Russia, against which united force no selfishness dared attempt to prevail."

A member of the house of deputies at Paris has declared that the "yellow peril" or any other pest is nothing compared to the "American peril," which is the rapid advance this country is making in commercial progress. The French, as other nations, fear American competition, and predict a commercial conquest of Europe. The consensus of opinion seems to be that nothing can be done, as the United States has nothing to lose and everything to gain. We can do without most of the goods imported from other countries but foreigners have to have our feed stuffs, and they are all beginning to realize that there is no possible way to down American competition.

It is rather remarkable presumption on part of the papers of Memphis to suppose that the thousands of visitors there during the confederate reunion are not perfectly familiar with the true condition of affairs during their visit. These people are not such fools as to be hoodwinked into the belief that everything was as lovely as the Memphis papers seem to want the outside world to think, and that everybody who had to pay for anything was not gouged to the extent of positive cruelty.

The editors of The Sun are Republicans and have always been. They have registered as Republicans and have always voted the ticket. Anything to the contrary is a malicious lie out of the whole cloth.

Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, has notified the governor that he was only joking.

The brick streets are sinking and the sidewalks are rising. Even the city council is alarmed.

RUNAWAY HORSE.

ONE BELONGING TO MR. E. P. GILSON HURT THIS MORNING.

E. P. Gilson's horse became frightened at a street car again this morning and dashed up the street towards the postoffice side of Broadway. It ran upon the pavement on the Fifth street side and attempted to jump the fence. Two of the sharp pickets pierced the animal's breast, between the forelegs and badly injured the forelegs also. The flow of blood was soon stopped and the horse will be all right it is thought in a few days. This is the second time the same horse has run away this week.

MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD

Dr. Taylor Offers Some Important Amendments to the School Rules, Which Were Referred.

ADJOURNED TO MEET AGAIN THE 17TH

There were ten members of the board of education at last night's meeting. President Reddick was in the chair, and the report of Superintendent Hatfield was the first thing considered. His recommendations were detailed in yesterday's paper, and the report was received and filed.

Miscellaneous bills to the amount of $226.45 were allowed. The regular pay roll amounting to $5,472.01 was allowed, and the report of Treasurer Terrell showed disbursements to be $3,747, leaving a balance of $66.16.

Chairman Weille, of the school committee reported that the place of holding the Eighth grade exercises had been changed from the park to the auditorium of the high school.

Mr. L. E. Gilman was allowed $34 for the use of a piano.

Dr. Taylor offered an amendment to the rules, specifying that all children who enter the schools must have a certificate that they were successfully vaccinated by a physician. It was deferred until the next meeting.

He also offered an amendment requiring all teachers to be subjected to a physical examination before being elected to positions in the schools, as a safeguard against tuberculosis and other contagious ailments. This proposed amendment was referred to the committee on rules and revision.

Trustee Weille brought up the matter of selling the school building at Fifth and Court, and devoting its proceeds to the erection of a suitable school building in some more convenient locality. The pupils could be transferred to the new building on West Broadway, he said, which building is large enough to accommodate them all. The old building could probably be disposed of for the Elk home or a public library.

Chairman Weille reported that the plumbers had failed to submit specifications for the plumbing and heating of Jefferson and Lee buildings, and that the architect had informed him it would cost about $50 to get them. He was instructed by the board to ask for the specifications again, and if the plumbers did not submit them, to get them from the architect, provided they do not cost more than $50.

The board seemed to think that that portion of the rules relative to the average scholarship required in graduating meant 80 per cent. average for the term, and not for only five months of the term. The matter was left to the committee on examination and course of study.

The board adjourned to meet again on the evening of the 17th in adjourned session.

CALL ON CAPTAIN WILLIAMSON

Captain John Williamson: As the Democrats have put up their ticket the Republicans should now make up a strong ticket. The good of the party demand prompt action on our part with the door wide open for free choice. We believe you are the choice of the Republicans and that our beloved city needs a business man at the head. Your public record cannot be assailed. Our beautiful cemetery is the result of the foundation laid by you years ago in the common council. You were one of the progressive board that has been slandered by malicious Democrats, and the time is now ripe for the people to join with Republicans to pull Paducah out of the rut into which Democratic misrule has put it. As a Republican you have always been true blue in private and in the council. Having seen Paducah grow from a village to a big city you are the best man for the place; your life long services to the party should be rewarded before it is too late, the young fellows can wait. And, once more we ask you to help the party by being a candidate for mayor, and we will elect you.

MANY REPUBLICANS.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT.

The Episcopal church Guild last night presented "A Dismal Rehearsal" in open air in the lot adjoining Judge Hubbard's residence on Jefferson street. Every seat was sold and many had to stand. From an artistic standpoint, as well as financial, the entertainment was a success, and the young people who took part in it deserve much credit.

SMALL BLAZE LAST EVENING.

The fire department was last night called about 9 o'clock to the old Bumpas property on South Sixth street near the Island Creek bridge. The blaze did much damage and one room only was saved, together with the household goods. It is thought that some one set fire to the building, as a man with a lantern was seen running away about the time the fire broke out. The loss will be several hundred dollars. No one was at home when the blaze was discovered.

ALL OVER A BLANKET.

A blanket caused more trouble in Squire Hook's court yesterday afternoon than anything in the line of household goods could possibly cause. There were about fifteen witnesses in the case and each witness wanted to cross examine the other. After the trial the case was decided in favor of the plaintiff, Bettie Cantrell, who claimed the blanket along with several other articles were taken from her by Emma Brown during her absence from the city.

WED THE 15TH.

Briggs officiating. The attendants will be Misses Irene Schwab and Annie Street and Messrs. John Walker and Edwin Thompson. After their return from their bridal trip east they will have rooms at Mr. Martin's.

Edward Hus, a well known business man of Salisbury, Mo., writes: "I wish to say for the benefit of others, that I was a sufferer from lumbago and kidney trouble, and all the remedies I took gave me no relief. I was induced to try POLEY'S KIDNEY CURE and after the use of three bottles I am cured."

LIEUTENANT'S SAD DEATH.

Ira D. Rockard, Duncombe, Ia., writes: "My little boy scalded his leg from the knee to the ankle. I used BANNER SALVE immediately and in three weeks' time it was almost entirely healed. I want to recommend it to every family and advise them to keep Banner Salve on hand, as it is a sure remedy for scalds or any sores."

Observations ...at Random

Auctioneer W. P. Hammond, of New York, who is conducting the sales at Bleich's has many incidents to relate illustrating the ruses adopted by various people to get souvenirs that are sometimes given away at auctions to those who attend.

"I used to notice," he said "at one place in New York, that about the same time every afternoon about the hour we closed a bevy of bright, fresh looking girls came in and got souvenirs. Finally they came so often I made inquiry and found that they were school girls, and stopped over on their way home after school solely to get souvenirs. As the souvenirs were silver and quite costly, I was sorry to tell them that we could not afford to give them any more, as they were intended for customers only.

"Well, they didn't come again, but every night after that a very pretty lot of young ladies were there, and they all got souvenir. I found out in a few days that the school girls had outwitted me after all, as they had been doing up their hair like their mothers and older sisters, putting on long dresses, and coming at night after the souvenirs.

"I had an amusing experience in the same place one day. We announced that souvenirs would not be given to children, and one afternoon a little girl, as I thought, stepped up and I said as kindly as I could, 'My little lady, we don't give 'em to children.' She flushed and a titter ran around the spectators. 'She's all right,' some one whispered to me, and I hastened to hand her a souvenir, realizing that something was wrong. I learned directly afterwards that she was a prominent married lady."

Those who know how unpleasant and difficult it often is to get restitution for stock killed by railroad, will doubtless appreciate the following letter, written by a Kansas farmer to the claim department of the Santa Fe railroad, and bringing immediate settlement:

Dear Sir: I have only one wife and five children—no mother-in-law. Last Monday night, about two and one-half miles east of Marcelino, the cars hit Spot on her caboose end. We found her Tuesday morning, April 6; She was as dead as a dirty doornail. She left a son to low for her. Spot was a common 10-year old Mammel Fork cow, worth $25. She was a fair milker; of a kind disposition. During the seven years we owned her, she never bit any of the children. Please send me $25 that I may get a cow, so we may have milk for the calf and children, and oblige."

"If you'll notice," remarked a police officer yesterday, "there is a vast difference between a crook and just a common, every day thief. This accounts for the fact that so few of the real confidence men and pickpockets are ever convicted. (They are too slick for us. Many of them are known to all the detectives in the country, but usually the most a detective can do when he runs across them is to give them hurry-up orders to leave town. Most of them are well dressed, well educated men of glib tongue and reassuring appearance and their operations are so well planned and successfully carried out that often, even when it is known of some 'trick' one has turned it is impossible to prove anything on him.

"You can take the two in jail here now for pinching a diamond. They are both nice looking men, and although they have probably been all over the country and been mixed up in many crooked deals, it is probably the first time they were ever caught with anything like a sure case against them. Their bonds had to be fixed high, at $1,000 and $500, because they have many friends throughout the country among the gentry, and as money comes easy they wouldn't object to putting up a moderate sum to secure the liberty of their friends here. They can hardly stand $1,500, however, so the young men will probably do time. When they came to Paducah they went up against the real thing.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OUTING.

TRAIN LOAD OF WATER VALLEY PEOPLE GO TO EDDYVILLE.

A train load of Water Valley Sunday school pupils passed through the city yesterday en route to Eddyville where they enjoyed a big picnic. There were 425 excursionists in all, and although the train was supplied with several extra coaches, several passengers were on top of the cars as all the seat and standing room was taken up.

It was one of the largest Sunday school picnics ever brought through Paducah.

A. O. Blanchard, West Bangor, N. Y., says: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years. Have doctored with several physicians and I got no relief until I used two bottles of FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE."

START YOUR GIRLS RIGHT!

Many beautiful girls become invalids for life, because at the crucial period of puberty they pay no attention to the laws of health. Mothers should protect their daughters' health by giving them necessary information and proper treatment. When the menses come on a girl unawares in her inexperience she is either frightened into convulsions or scared into trying to check the flow. Many girls have checked the flow and it has never started again. And as a result they have grown pale-faced, with "crow tracks" on their cheeks, and dark half-moons under their eyes. A dose of taken every morning after a girl is twelve years old will bring the menses on properly and keep them regular. It will help her to develop into an active woman and equip her for the duties of wifehood and motherhood. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

The Hollywood, Aubury Park, N. J., February 3, 1900.

I read your advertisement in regard to Wine of Cardui in the Baltimore American, and it so favorably impressed me that on my visit to Baltimore during the holidays I purchased a bottle of it for my adopted daughter, who was suffering with female troubles. She had been under the doctor's care for some time, and when her periods would come on, her suffering was something terrible. I induced her to try it and the first dose brought on her menses. She took it regularly according to the directions, and was greatly relieved. To use her own words—
"It saved my life!"
